The championship will be organized in 11-round Swiss system.

The rate of play will be 90 minutes for 40 moves plus 30 minutes for the rest of the game with an increment of 30 seconds per move, starting from move one.

FIDE's Laws of Chess will apply.

Designation of the winner: the final rank of the players is determined by the number of points scored. If at the end of the tournament two or more players are tied, the tie shall be broken according to the following tie-break systems:

- a. Direct Encounter
- b. Buchholz cut-1
- c. Sonneborn-Berger
- d. Median Buchholz
- e. Rating performance

The first four (4) qualify for the "FIDE World Cup" stage of the World Championship cycle.

In case of a tie in one or more qualifying positions, the classification will be defined as follows:
